Dear Parents/Guardians

Year 8 History Trip: Morwellham Quay
Tuesday 16th October 2018

To widen the educational experience of our pupils, the History department is running an optional extra trip to Morwellham Quay to improve students' understanding of Devon's role during the Industrial Revolution.

Details are as follows:

- Leaving school at 9:15am.
- Arriving back to school for 4:30pm
- School uniform to be worn, although more comfortable shoes are acceptable.
- Students need to bring a packed lunch; for students on Free School Meals, one will be provided.

The cost of the trip will be £19. This includes transport entrance to Morwellham Quay, a ride on the mine train and a series of mini workshops. Places are limited to 90 and available on a 'first come, first served' basis to Year 8 students.

To secure a place, please complete the attached parental consent form and return with £19 no later than 5th October to the college reception. Cheques should be made payable to Isca.

Any questions, please contact us at the usual school address.

Yours sincerely

Mrs G Adams
(Teacher of History)
