Dear Parents/Guardians

HUMBUG! AN ADAPTATION OF A CHRISTMAS CAROL BY WANDERING TIGER
MONDAY 10 DECEMBER 2018 – 2PM

Promenade performance of Humbug! An adaptation of A Christmas Carol by Wandering Tiger.

Meet at school at start of Period 4 to have lunch before we walk into town for the performance at 2pm. The performance takes place at the historic St Nicholas Priory which was founded by William the Conqueror in 1087. This is a wonderful opportunity for our GCSE students to experience a performance of a key GCSE English Literature text in a unique setting.

Unfortunately, due to the nature of this historic venue, Humbug! is not suitable for wheelchair users.

Please note that students can be dismissed from the venue into town but this needs to be indicated on the booking form by a parent or guardian. Students will need to be in full and correct school uniform until they are dismissed in town or at school dependent on what is indicated on the booking form.

The cost of the trip will be £8.

To secure a place, please complete the attached parental consent form and return with £8 no later than ..... to the college reception. Cheques should be made payable to Isca.

We look forward to taking our students to this interesting performance.

Any questions, please contact us at the usual school address.

With thanks

Yours sincerely

Maria Freestone – Deputy Leader, English Team
